

COOKIE POLICY

Version: 1.0

Last updated: 17 July 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how Avicore uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit our website, and how you can manage your preferences.

1. Introduction

Strictly necessary cookies are always active. Non-essential cookies, such as analytics cookies, are placed only where you have given consent through our cookie banner, and you can change your preferences at any time.

For more information about how we handle personal data, please see our Privacy Policy.

2. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website.

They help websites function correctly, improve performance, and provide insight into how visitors use the website.

3. Types of cookies we use

Essential cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function correctly. Examples include:

- Security
- Form functionality
- Cookie preference storage
- Website performance

These cookies cannot be disabled through our website.

Functional cookies

These cookies remember your preferences to improve your experience. Examples include:

- Language preferences
- User interface settings

Analytics cookies

Where enabled, analytics cookies help us understand how visitors use our website so that we can improve its performance. Examples may include:

- Google Analytics

Analytics cookies are placed only after obtaining your consent where required.

Security cookies

Our website may use Google reCAPTCHA to protect contact forms against spam and abuse. Google may place cookies as part of this service.

More information is available in Google's Privacy Policy (policies.google.com/privacy).

4. Contact forms

Our contact forms are provided through Gravity Forms.

Information submitted through these forms is processed solely for responding to your enquiry and conducting normal business communications.

5. Managing cookies

You can change your cookie preferences at any time through our cookie settings.

Most web browsers also allow you to:

- View stored cookies
- Delete cookies
- Block cookies
- Receive notifications before cookies are stored

Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect website functionality.

6. Changes

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. The latest version will always be available on this website, and the date shown at the top of this policy indicates when it was last updated.
